

Name: _____ Date: _____

Multiple Choice Questions

Circle the correct answer.

1. The Democratic or Republican nominee for president is selected
 - a. By primaries
 - b. By caucuses
 - c. At the national convention
 - d. None of the above

2. The date of a primary is governed by the same rules as a
 - a. County election
 - b. State election
 - c. Federal election
 - d. None of the above

3. Which state traditionally holds the first primary in the nation?
 - a. New York
 - b. New Hampshire
 - c. Iowa
 - d. Idaho

4. Which state traditionally holds the first caucuses in the nation?
 - a. New York
 - b. New Hampshire
 - c. Iowa
 - d. Idaho

5. Federal elections are
 - a. The same as primaries
 - b. The same as caucuses
 - c. Held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November
 - d. Held on Super Tuesday

6. How many candidates run for president in a primary?
 - a. Two
 - b. Three
 - c. Four
 - d. Varies