Civil War Worksheet - part 2 (1)

Read the passage and Answer the questions

This major Civil War battle was the first to be fought on Northern soil. The two leaders were Gen. George McClellan for the North and Gen. Robert E. Lee for the South. Although both sides had positive results, the North was able to gain the most momentum from the battle and this propelled them to eventual victory. This battle would go down as the bloodiest one ever with close to 23,000 men losing their lives. This is also where Pres. Lincoln gave his historic speech, the Emancipation Proclamation.

Read the passage and Answer the questions

Both the North and the South had inexperienced men as soldiers. Estimates of the ages of men who participated as soldiers placed about one million of the roughly 2.7 million who fought at age 18. Other estimates state approximately 2 million young troops at under age 21. Men from all walks of life participated and fought during the American Civil War. Although many troops were at one time farmers and laborers, doctors, shoemakers, and butchers were also among soldiers represented.

1. What does the term inexperienced mean?

2. Approximately how many soldiers fought in the American Civil War?

3. Name at least two trades represented by soldiers.
